Salt Lake City, UT | P: 951 790 2621 | E: daniel.lewis@pm.me

I am writing to you today to apply for your Full-stack Software Developer position.

I am a Salt Lake City native with a passion for cybersecurity and web development. I am fortunate to have been exposed to many roles in tech including administration, monitoring, and development. Ask me about my homelab.

I have studied Cybersecurity and Information Assurance with Western Governors University, and Full Stack Web Development with the University of Utah.

I bring an unrivaled background in infrastructure administration and development.

I would love to come in and interview with you to see how I can fit in with your team.

Sincerely,
Daniel Lewis
